Aug 1 - Aug 31 Submit Your Favorite Recipe(s) for the Friends of Interlochen Public Library Cookbook

The Friends of IPL will be publishing a cookbook showcasing the best recipes from our community and we want your recipes to be included! Recipe submissions will be open for the month of August. We would appreciate three or four of your favorite recipes to be considered for our upcoming cookbook. If we do select one or more of your recipes to be featured in our cookbook, we will print your name by each one. Stop by Interlochen Public Library to pick up a recipe form. For more info contact IPLCookbook@gmail.com.

Aug 10 Wool Crafting & Needlework at Interlochen Public Library

Aug 18 Interlochen Public Library's Live Your Best Life Series: Preserving Your Harvest

Join us at Interlochen Public Library for Preserving Your Harvest on Wed., Aug 18, 1 pm–2:30 pm, Interlochen Public Library Community Room. Would you like to enjoy Michigan's produce all year long? Join us as Kara Lynch, MS, RD a registered dietician from MSU Extension, discusses the various types of food preservation and teaches us how to preserve safely. There is a lot of misinformation out there about food preservation and we want to make sure that you have the guidelines and resources for all of your preservation needs. Kara teaches a variety of classes including food preservation, ServSafe, Cottage Food Law, Cooking for Crowds and Safe Food = Healthy Kids. To register or for more info, email jransom@tadl.org. Funded with a grant from the Allen Foundation.
